

Strangers in the Wild

(3 x 60 mins) HDTV

This is an adventure series that brings together two passionate men from Korea and Spain, located at the opposite ends of the Eurasian continent. They begin a thrilling adventure which takes place in Spain, France and Korea.

Hailing from two completely different cultures, these men must face the daunting task of climbing some of the world's most dizzying peaks.

The rapport between the two men arises from the fact that they come from different cultural backgrounds while sharing the same passion for life, and this fuels an adventure that is at once exciting and fun. And through this once-in-a-lifetime experience, the men develop a deep understanding and appreciation of each other's cultures and learn what it means to be truly "global."
