

LOS LONELY BOYS

COTTONFIELDS & CROSSROADS

A FILM BY HECTOR GALÁN

89 minutes

"You'll clap and cheer"- Americana Roots

Four Stars: "Galan mines documentary gold ...compelling..."- Austin American Statesman

After a childhood of playing cantinas and honky tonks from Texas to Tennessee, Los Lonely Boys rocked their way to the top of the music industry, determined to fulfill their father's long held dream.

Los Lonely Boys Cottonfields and Crossroads tells the passionate story of three Mexican American brothers from West Texas who are creating a unique sound that melds the core of early blues and rock n roll with a signature style they call Texican, a style that garnered them a Grammy win for their multi-platinum hit single, "Heaven", embraced the world over.

The film fuses exciting live performances, vivid imagery of West Texas, and intimate personal stories as it captures a magical moment in time when the stars finally aligned in the boys' favor after so many years of struggle. It is a heartfelt and moving account that brings to life Los Lonely Boys' incredible personal musical journey.

The film traces the early days as the young family band cuts its teeth learning from their father as he takes them to play in country bars and Tex Mex cantinas. We travel with them to Nashville where they endure turmoil and heartbreak. These life experiences captured so eloquently by filmmaker Galán's camera reveal a compelling portrait of a young band of brothers who against all odds, break out of poverty and find the American rock n roll dream.

DISTRIBUTION:

johnmcleanmedia

802 Newton #PH3

Seattle, WA 98109, USA

Phone: 206.285.2603

Email: john@johnmcleanmedia.com

Website: www.johnmcleanmedia.com