

Miracles In Tula

(57 mins)

Hosted by country music star Naomi Judd, "Miracles in Tula" takes viewers on an unforgettable journey to Tula, Mexico, with the volunteer doctors, nurses, and staff of San Diego's Scripps Mercy Outreach Surgical Team (MOST). Each year, MOST provides free reconstructive surgeries and procedures for hundreds of children in Mexico. A team of more than 40 physicians, nurses, recovery team members, and translators provides a range of procedures, from the simple repair of cleft lips to complex flap rotations for burn scars. Children with these deformities are often separated from society, and some are even abandoned by their parents. From crowded conditions to power outages and petty politics, there are challenges to the MOST team along the way, but the benefit for each child's life is dramatic. The medical procedures provided by MOST all Children to integrate into their communities and live a normal life with hope for the future. "Miracles in Tula" will lift viewers' hearts and make them dream about heroic deeds to serve God and humanity.

Xtreme Church Makeover

(45 mins)

Xtreme Church Makeover looks at how the renovation of one small church in a distressed San Diego neighborhood was accomplished by a committed group of Christian volunteers. From the initial planning, through construction to an unprecedented street celebration, the film captures the faith, the fun, even the foul-ups, by people all working together to give glory to God. Led by Maranatha Chapel and Impact Urban America, a team of volunteers provided the materials, equipment and labor to renovate tiny Faith Tabernacle in San Diego's inner-city Mount Hope neighborhood. In just six days, the small church was beautifully transformed; dozens of volunteers shared an experience they won't forget; and the neighborhood witnessed an unprecedented outpouring of love and caring that is turning hearts to Christ.
