The Canadian Rally Championship is the preeminent motorsport in Canada. Taking place on forest roads across the country, the Canadian Rally Championship pits high-powered production cars against the clock to see who is fastest in ever-changing weather and terrain.

The 2014 season features top drivers and teams, including current Champion Antoine L'Estage in a Mitsubishi Evolution, Pat "Rocket" Richard driving for the Subaru Canada factory team and Champion Jean-Sébastien Besner returning to competition after a decade in a Mitsubishi. Plus, a new MINI driven by Joel Levac and many other teams in contention.

Races take place on closed roads, spanning multiple days making it a race not just of speed, but of epic endurance as well.

The 2014 season consists of 6 events:

- ✓ Rally Perce-Neige Maniwaki (Snow), Québec
- ✓ Rallye Baie Des Chaleurs, Québec
- ✓ Rallye Défi, Québec
