

ROAD TRIP MASTERS

20 x 22 mins HDTV

Road Trip Masters is a half hour TV show hosted by two educators, Nick Kessler and Brian Fulmer. They have one mission... to tell the story of unique travel destinations across America. Nick and Brian take viewers along for the ride in their 1968 convertible Cadillac De Ville as they road trip to places like Annapolis, Maryland, the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania, Newport, Rhode Island and Lake Placid, New York. Watch as they explore each town or city in a fun, spontaneous and adventurous style.

Viewers are informed on the history of the area, where to stay, places to eat, and things to do. This show packs a ton of information, delivered by two dynamic and down-to-earth teachers with a passion for travel and adventure, in just a short amount of time.

Music by Stellar Corpses, Eric Mintell Quartet, Chris Caffery, Friar's Point Band, Tom Kessler, David Kessler and John Scarangelo
